RE: Letter Of Referral For Neil D. Masielat

To Whom It May Concern:

Neil is a talented and professional Animator. While attending school, he was employed here as a non-paid intern for a semester. From the time he started here he worked on various animation projects and displayed qualities that lead us to bring him back as a paid freelancer.

Neil demonstrated outstanding talents in all aspects of animation and design. He has proved to be a self-starter and problem solver who needs minimum supervision. He handles pressure well and always exceeded expectations while implementing a great work ethic.

Overall, Neil is an invaluable asset to any creative environment. He has the ability and drive to be successful, and I highly recommend him. If you have any questions or wish to speak any further about Neil, please feel free to call or email me.

Sincerely,

Joe Matamales
